DETAILED ACTION

1. This is in response to Applicant's arguments, filed on 10/16/06, with respect to 1, 3-4, 7-16, 21-24 and 38 have been fully considered and are persuasive. Therefore, the rejection of the last Office action has been withdrawn.

The following is the current status of claims:

Claims 2, 5-6, 17-20 and 25-37 have been previously canceled.

Claims 38 have been added.

Claims 1, 3-4, 7-16, 21-24 and 38 remain pending for examination.

REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

With respect to claims 1, 3-4, 7-16, 21-24 and 38 are allowed over the prior art of record.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

With respect to claims 1 and 21, the claimed features "a computer-implemented method of managing physical-file-based data adapted to be manipulated via a file-based computerized editor, wherein the physical-file-based data includes a physical file having a plurality of file elements, the method comprising the steps of recreating equivalent physical-file-based data for use within an environment of a physical-file-based computerized editor from said individual components in said store and storing said recreating physical-file-based data, wherein said recreating physical-file-based data is adapted to be edited via a physical-file-based editor in a plurality of successive sessions" in conjunction with other elements of the independent claims would not found anticipated or obvious over the prior art made of record.

The dependent claims, being definite, further limiting, and fully enabled by the specification are also allowed.

The closest prior art, Kiriara et al., U.S. Patent Number 5,339,247 relates to a distributed data computer aided design system suitable for design of an assembled part whose data is distributed. Gladney et al., U.S. Patent Number 4,714,992 relates to managing versions of data objects stored in a plurality of nodes of a distributed processing system but fail to teach the above limitations.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
